

PRESS RELEASE - For Immediate Release

<Michelin Guide 2009> Recommends Cosmopolitan Hotel Hong Kong
As One of Most Comfortable Hotels

(Hong Kong, March 12, 2009) Cosmopolitan Hotel Hong Kong is proudly selected by remarkable <Michelin Guide 2009> as one of most comfortable hotels, among all 186 hotels in Hong Kong (information based on Tripadvisor®).

Michelin Guide

Michelin Guide started its travel guide business more than a century ago introducing hotels and restaurants and has instantly become the indispensable companion to all travelers. Today, it has become a prestigious “traveler’s bible” which connoisseurs and travel trendsetters live up to due to their specific Michelin star rating system that symbolizes benchmark of reliability and excellence globally.

As part of the meticulous evaluation, Michelin inspectors conduct anonymous visits to the property and no listing in the guide is paid.

Cosmopolitan Hotel Hong Kong as one of most comfortable hotels

The debut <Michelin Guide Hong Kong & Macau 2009> is recently published introducing a selected series of restaurants and hotels in the region. Being one of thirty-four recommended hotels and specifically one of two in the commercial Wan Chai district, Cosmopolitan Hotel is described as “smart and unpretentious” and is “the perfect choice for anyone wanting to attend the Happy Valley Racecourse with rooms offering a full view of the proceedings”.

“Both management and staff are very proud and excited to see us listed as a recommended hotel by Michelin Guide, which their inspectors visit and stay with us without identifying themselves. This has proved that our service standard to be impartial and that we treat every of our guests just as the most honored one. “says Anita Chan, General Manager of Cosmopolitan Hotel.
